

The Archivist diagram of ideas behind the carving

Natasha's notes from her sketch →

- Scroll
- Referencing cogs for Gloucestershire industry
- Multiple faces – family histories
- Police badge
- Ancient wax seal seen on archives – Also referencing a steering wheel for Moon's Garage
- Gloucestershire castles
- Locally found medieval head dug up by Taynton Metal detecting club
- Magnifying glass – tool of the archivist
- Layering seen in decayed book
- Archway on the side of the building
- Local map references
- Two spires whilst carving at height were visible
- Inspired by the aerial view of Gloucestershire Archives
- Inspired by aerial view of GCHQ
- Mining pick Forest of Dean
- Inspired by ancient buckle found in Huntley by Taynton Metal Detecting Club
- Severn Bore amazing phenomenon in Gloucestershire
- Small canoe form within a larger vessel
- Gloucestershire aviation history (Dowty)
- Purton Hulks
- Propeller hub with viewing holes
- Pegs hammered in on embedded notes and items
- Benchmark seen locally and on OS maps

www.natasha-houseago.co.uk

